Queenstown News Items

These are prosperous times for the non-resident grain-haulers as the roads are now good and great hauls can be hauled. The price has gone up from two to thirteen cents per bushel on the Cluny haul. Still, with the present high prices of wheat a farmer can better afford to pay thirteen cents than he could pay ten when wheat was only 69 cents a bushel.

If you want to see the real thing in grain hauling come down to the ferry some morning. Eight horses strong out in pairs with several grain tanks trailing. Each driver hauling between 200 and 300 bushels at a trip. Of course, there is the usual waiting and delay at the ferry. Teamsters who arrive alone are lucky to get across about 5 p. m.

Karl Mills has bought his Maxwell for horses and has traded a Ford on the side. The Maxwell was a white elephant in his hands. Old Man Earl says the Ford is the only car for a farmer. In the meantime Joe Stump with his new DeSionia is showing the natives a few pointers.

The small tractor is the only thing for the farmer. It works perfectly on paper. Still, judging from the experience some of our farmers have had with them this summer, most of us will take our chances with horses, "Bess or no Bess".

A. Saunders has bought P. Mills and a threshing outfit, and Mr. Mills will buy a big separator for his engine.

Dan Shaw sold his farm to Alex Gaskin a short time ago and the M.J.ville post office will thus be homeless.

Hire Receipts and Conditional Sales

At the last session of the Legislature an amendment was made to the ordinance respecting Hire Receipts and Conditional Sales providing that in order to preserve the rights contained therein, a renewal statement of the amount of hire for principal and interest and of all payments made on account of hire notes and hire receipts shall be filed within thirty days of the expiration of two years from the first filing, and thereafter renewals shall be filed within thirty days of the expiration of one year from the day the former filing. Where the first filing was made two years or more before the passing of the amendment, the renewal shall be filed within six months of the date of the amendment.

The amendment was passed on 18th day of April, 1916, so that the time for registering renewals of hire notes and hire receipts originally filed two years or more prior to the 18th day of April last will expire on the 18th day of October next.

Renewals must have an affidavit attached setting forth that the statement is true and that the registration district where the property is situated at the time of the making of the statement. Parties holding hire notes or hire receipts who do not file renewal statements as required lose their lien on the goods or chattels.

Masonic Hall Dedicated

One of the most successful Masonic functions that has taken place in Gleichen was the dedication of the new Masonic Hall on Tuesday night of this week. The ceremony was performed by District Deputy Grand Master J. A. Macdonald, assisted by his officers, and a large number of guests were present. The hall is a fine building, and the ceremony was a most successful one. The hall is a fine building, and the ceremony was a most successful one.

A church service will be held at the North Camp next Sunday afternoon by the local Masonic Lodge. Rt. W. Bro. Rev. Canon Stockton will be the preacher on this occasion. The brethren are asked to meet at the lodge room at 2 o'clock sharp and leave there by auto.

Every farmer in the district is earnestly requested to be present. Fruit prices are very disappointing, but you cannot look forward to receiving prices as low as in former years. The prices for apples, peaches and plums are, all of which will not average over 50 per cent of a crop in B. C. The same applies to berries. In the district, especially in very short, but they will not be able to take care of much more than their home trade. Apples and cherries will run about the same price as last season. Tomatoes will also be about the same.

Gleichen Ninth Annual Exhibition

The weather was all that could be desired during the two days of the Gleichen ninth annual exhibition, save for the last afternoon when the wind became blustery and some rain fell, after which it became quite cold.

Generally speaking the quality of the exhibits were excellent and all that could be desired, but we very much regret to have to say that the quantity was far from being satisfactory or what it might have been and should have been. In fact we must say that too many of our otherwise good people are either too selfish, lack enterprise or have too much "cussedness" within to help themselves and incidentally their neighbors and the very best part of the country on old mother earth. Yet there was one good feature—we did not hear anyone complain they had better at home, which was at least consoling.

The list of premiums awarded, which is reproduced again on page seven with some corrections, gives the result in the best possible form and tells who are the enterprising members of this community.

The exhibit of horses was small but excellent in quality and there is much thanks due the Clark brothers, John and Robt. Prowse and the others who came a distance with their horses. Although the hot weather did not permit of bringing in their heavier animals.

The number of cattle was also small but good—were the swine and dogs, but there were no sheep.

The poultry department was fairly well filled with fowl that would do honor to the largest exhibitions.

In roots and vegetables and grains and grasses it would indeed be difficult to get a finer display considering the early stage of the season. There is great credit due John Glimbeck of Queenstown, who brought all the way from his farm a magnificent collection of cabbages on their bushes and a fine large strawberry plant, for which he was justly awarded a special prize.

The educational display was very large, in fact the largest and best ever seen here, and a credit to the children and their instructor. The Indian exhibit was exceptionally good, and the judges said the variety was so great that it is just they awarded the eight little girls each $1.

The women's cooking, dairy and ladies' work were grand, both in quality and quantity, and all were greatly admired.

The women and children have done more than their share and the men should be made to feel it.

The Lathbridge Experimental Station exhibit made up for many shortages and there is much credit due Mr. H. Wodell, who was in charge of it, ever ready to answer questions and supply information on all experiments. The exhibit was different in many respects from last year and the models of farm and poultry buildings and other articles educative and gave some good ideas to take home and build on. There were also many different circulars on agriculture and dairying matters for distribution.

The second afternoon a few races were indulged in and that evening a baseball match was played between the Gleichen team and the Calgary Cubs, the latter proving very ancient brains in scoring.

Each night there were good motion pictures shown in the Opera House followed by dances, the music being supplied by an orchestra from Strathmore.

The problem of financing and reviving interest in our association is now to be considered and the man who solves them will deserve a monument.

The best headline is the one that is always the cheapest. The Rev. Canon Stockton will administer Holy Communion in St. Andrew's church, Gleichen, on Sunday next, August 27th, at 8 a.m. All church members please attend and make a point of attending these services, which, by the kind use of Rev. Canon Stockton, will be held on the fourth Sunday in every month until further notice.

Miss Matthews of near London, Ont., is visiting her brother.

Newspaper Costs

Few readers of newspapers are aware of the increased cost of newspaper production since the outbreak of the war, yet no other line of business has suffered so heavily. Throughout the Dominion nearly all the weekly papers have either advanced their subscription price or reduced the size of their paper for this reason. However, the CALL does not intend to do either, but we are sending statements to all advertisers and each one is advised that unless they pay in advance they will not receive this paper for more than two weeks after the date on the statement.

The following table gives the advance in prices of materials more or less used in producing newspapers:

	Advance
News print: .....	10
Other paper: .....	50
Ink, black and colored: .....	50
Coated metal: .....	35
Press rollers: .....	15
News blankets: .....	15
4-in. paper: .....	47
Postage: .....	354
Printers: .....	32
Stationery: .....	25
Supper: .....	66
Zinc: .....	400
Virgin acid: .....	89
Semolina potassium: .....	150
Sulphate copper: .....	300
Steel: .....	1,600
Benzoil: .....	380

The newspaper publisher has had to stand his proportion of the general advance in the price of all labor.

Harvest hands are arriving daily and the shortage may not be so serious as feared.

Rev. Haynes and wife of Bracket are here visiting his sister, Mrs. W. H. James, for a week.

Monday morning the fire whistle called the town. At first it was a small fire, but it proved to be only some boxes.

J. H. Groulx has presented the CALL with the finest collection of vegetables we have had this season, comprising beans, cauliflower, carrots, beets, lettuce, etc. He has a beautiful flower and vegetable garden at the Blackfoot Agency this year, and his trees and shrubs are excellent this year. He also has a fine strawberry plant on which he did not allow berries to grow this year, so they should be great producers. Among other things he has some cucumbers and tomatoes, as well as cabbages in great abundance. A visit to this busy spot will pay anyone.

The following is extracted from a letter received from the Robin Hood Co. by J. A. Ramsay of the Hay Store: Flour price advanced another 15 cents per 98 lbs. yesterday, making the present basis of Robin Hood $4.25. All indications seem to point to a price for flour and wheat, and it is pretty hard to say where advances are likely to stop. A good many people around the Grain Exchange are looking for wheat and while we are not forecasting what its price is within the possibilities.

KINDNESS, CRUELTY

Beatrice Fairfax Warns Against the Coddling Habit

There is nothing more acceptable or welcome than judiciously applied sympathy; but the mother who lavishes continued and extravagant pity upon her children is really doing them an irreparable wrong.

If we use the "muscles of our souls" we grow morally stronger, just as the exercise of our bodies strengthens us physically. Lads who from childhood have been saddled with a proportionate part of the family burden put upon their shoulders make better men and find the hardships of after life more easy to bear, while those who have had all troubles lifted from their shoulders by over-indulgent parents find every molehill a mountain and the softest wind a hurricane.

"There, there, darling! Let mother kiss it better, poor little chap!" says the foolish mother to her tiny boy should he injure himself the tiniest bit. As he grows older her heart aches because he has to face school in the cold mornings, and she expresses grief at this terrible hardship, and possibly she waits on the doorstep for his return to help him off with his things and set him by a warm fire.

Ruined by Self-pity

Thus, when he is ready for an office stool, he comes to her with every little grievance about his "boss" and fellow-workers, because he knows she will listen and commiserate with him. Even should he himself become a manager or proprietor, she pities him because his business will not allow him to have a motor car or some other extravagance. So, instead of becoming a useful and interesting member of the community, he is obsessed with the terrible and incurable disease, "self-pity".

I know not one, but at least a dozen young men who are born of humble parents, and have been given good educations and placed in a higher sphere of work. They all permit their aged mothers to wait on them, and some of them actually boast that they have coffee brought to them in the early mornings when they are awakened.

How sorry such men will be for themselves when they face the hardships of training, and how much worse it will seem than it would, had they been made to rough it a bit more. It is just as necessary for children to be trained to meet the blows of after life as it is for them to have proper food and clothing.

The Happiest Children

There is an old lady to-day who has passed through a life of most abject poverty. Not because she has been over-burdened with troubles, but because from childhood onward those with whom she has come in contact have lavished unbounded sympathy upon her. Her husband was the last to pity her if she had to do the ordinary duties of a normally healthy woman. Ten years ago he died, and for all that long time she has been left with only herself to be sorry for herself, and so her face is lined and marked with discontent, and she looks older than her years.

It is the mother who demands the most of her children who gets the most from them, and such children certainly grow up healthier and happier than those who have been taught by precept that they are to have the best of everything and endless pity when the least trouble comes their way.—Beatrice Fairfax.

SCENTS THAT ARE SWEET

Advice About How to Use Dainty Sachet Powders

There are many women who delight in sweet perfumes. There are few well bred women nowadays who use scents so that they could possibly be objectionable to others. And this is well. For there are some persons who are truly distressed by perfumes. So before indulging your own liking for them, it is well to remember that your next-door neighbor at the theatre may find them very unpleasant—and therefore plan to buy and use very delicate perfumes.

Sachet powder is a very good way of distributing your favorite perfume daintily among your clothes, and there are many dainty sachet holders in the shops. It is, of course, quite a simple matter to make little bags or cases for sachet powder for yourself. Buy the powder you desire, sprinkle it thickly on cotton batting, and cover the batting with a silk or muslin cover, in the shape of a little cushion or a bag.

Then it is possible to buy inexpensive cases containing very good sachets. There are pretty paper sachet cases, covered with cases of flowered paper, that cost 10 cents each. Sandal wood sachet is one of the very delicate odors in these ten-cent packages.

Mme. Sarah Bernhardt records that among the things she most dislikes is a sea voyage.

ALL SALES SET FOR FALL 1916 BUSINESS

"Greater than Ever"

Is the Busy Store slogan for this fall. We intend to break all previous records and are prepared with quantities of goods that shall stand us in good stead. The rush is already on and our staff is taxed to the limit. This is our best advertisement. It proves our contention of values and a store service unexcelled.

What shall rule the roost in Gleichen as usual and produce good money returns which can be judiciously spent at Ramsay's, where the people are. Where clerks wait on crowds instead of units.

Pay When You Graduate

Our pay-when-you-get-a-position plan speaks of our unbounded confidence in our ability to place our graduates in good positions. No other school offers it. Such is the demand for first-class graduates we run in and in. During May alone we had forty-four requests for stenographers and bookkeepers. Write to the principal, P. G. Garbutt, for information concerning this credit plan before it is withdrawn. Whether for cash or credit it pays to attend the best school

Jack Wilson was down from Drummeller last week.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

What a 181 554 makes the farmer smile some more.

Guest Courtesies returned Friday in Calgary with his wife and child.

Miss Lillian Moss has returned from a month's visit to her sister near Hannah.

S. D. Milliken has returned from Banff and has almost recovered from his attack of rheumatism.

It is amazing the number of new binders our farmers are purchasing. Another good sign.

Dr. Parquharson's father arrived from Prince Edward Island last Friday to visit him for a couple of months.

McConnell has only one grade of gasoline—the best. It is always the cheapest.

We regret to learn that Mrs. Walker has been seriously ill for sometime and is not improving very rapidly.

Binder twice in great quantities leaving town daily. This is the very best indication of the good crops to be harvested.

Mrs. M. Thorsbrow's with her Strathmore orchestra delighted all who attended the dances the night of the fair. It is hoped this will not be their last appearance in Gleichen as their music was appreciated.

E. Urichach is putting on good motion pictures three nights each week and has reduced the admission to 20 cents and if attendance warrants may make it 15 cents. His surprise should be acknowledged.

Buy your gasoline at McConnell's one grade only—the best—and always the lowest price.

Don't be ashamed of your butter. Have your name neatly printed on every wrapper at the Call office. It will cost quarter of a cent more per pound and any person will pay five cents extra to know whose butter they are buying.

Mrs. Harrison has returned from a year's visit to her former home at Collingwood, Ont. She is just as young as ever and says she will again show the young folks how to dance. All are pleased to see her looking so well and happy.

Last week H. Mass of Blind Creek sent the Call a sample of his wheat which is fine to reach this office. It is a mass and is very good in our mill. He really should have entered it the fair. He has 150 acres and no doubt is busy cutting it before now.

D. Gillespie, wife and children returned last week from spending a couple of months visiting relatives in P. E. I., Ontario and in other provinces. He says he saw on good crops until he got near Glauy and was glad to get away from the heat of Ontario, although they enjoyed life on the Island.

Chas. Park of Bonker took in the fair and met away from it. He is not a two-cent booster. He is not in Bonker and with three or four good fellows struck Tom Hunter's wet grocery department. He says, "You know the other stuff used to help conversation just a little. We asked Tom if there was anything doing and he put up two per cent. After the third round we were standing with our backs to each other. The ranch is a pretty good place these days."

Ice For Sale at Palace Hotel In any Quantity to suit purchaser

F. C. Vigar is a good neighbor. He cut and burned all the weeds along the sidewalk from his warehouse to this office and made a good job of it. He also has a well-kept garden and one of the best in town.
